Numb. 524.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM DECEMBER 21. TO DECEMBER 28. 1738.

PARIS, October 6.

THE Iriſh Regiments in the Service of this Crown wanting greatly to be recruited, ſeveral Officers of theſe Regiments, will, with the Permiſſion of the King of Great Britain, go into Ireland, in order to raiſe the Recruits neceſſary.

BELGRADE, Aug. 26. O. S. The Imperial Army is this Day enter'd into the Lines that were caſt up round this City in 1717, and the Works upon the Fortifications, which were ſome Days ſuſpended, are renewed with more Vigour than ever. 'Tis reported that the Grand Vizier is, by expreſs Order, ſet out for Conſtantinople, where it is ſaid there has been a great Tumult, the Inhabitants having rebelled, the Dearneſs of Proviſions, which is really extraordinary, being the Pretence; but 'tis believed their real Deſign is to demand the Heads of ſome of the Miniſters of the Divan, whoſe Conduct is not agreeable to the Populace.

LEGHORN, Sept. 9. The Maſter of a French Ship arrived Yeſterday from Marſeilles ſays, that in purſuance of Orders from the Court of France, all the Men of War at Toulon were fitting out; but for what Purpoſe is not yet known.

PETERSBURG, Sept. 23. We have received Confirmation that the Ruſſian Army, having quitted the Dnieſter, was in full March for the Ukrain, in which Count Munich's Conduct has been intirely approv'd, and that General is expected here about the End of next Month. We have likewiſe Advice that Count Lacy, was arriv'd with his Army on the Banks of the Dnieper, from whence he was to continue his March to the Ukrain. We expect that the Turks will attempt ſomething againſt Oczakow before the End of the Campaign; but the Court appears very eaſy upon that Article, the Garriſon being numerous and well provided with every thing neceſſary.

WARSAW, Sept. 25. The Plague continues to make ſuch frightful Ravages about Choczim and Caminieck; that in a Place in that Neighbourhood, call'd Chodakow, all the Inhabitants have been carried off by it, not one eſcaping; and this has been principally the Cauſe of the Ruſſians Retreat.

LONDON, Sept. 30. We hear from Venice, that two Ambaſſadors from Thamas Kouli Kan are arrived at Conſtantinople; and that according to the Accounts they have from the Turkiſh Miniſtry, their Errand is to conclude a ſolid and laſting Treaty of Alliance between their Maſter and the Grand Seignior.

We hear that the Earl of Crawford has ſent a moſt curious Journal of the Proceedings between Count Munich's Army and the Turks, to his Majeſty.

The Suſſex Indiaman, ſuppoſed to be loſt off Madagaſcar, is not intirely given over; and if ſhe be brought to England, a Reward of 1000l. beſides all future Encouragement in their Service, we hear is order'd to each ſingle Sailor of the 16 that were left on board her when the reſt of the Crew quitted the ſaid Ship.

According to private Letters from Paris, the French Troops in Corſica are to be ſpeedily reinforced by 6000 additional Troops.

The long expected Sentence againſt Count Seckendorff is at length known, and may be reduced to theſe four Conditions. That that General ſhall be under a Civil Reſtraint for ſix Months, either at Prague or Preſlau, which he ſhall chuſe, the whole City being allowed him for his Confinement. That he ſhall not directly or indirectly revenge himſelf of his Adverſaries. That he ſhall not only not enter into the Service of any Power whatſoever; but he ſhall ſolemnly engage never to ſerve againſt the Emperor and the Empire. And laſtly, as it ſhall be expreſsly forbid both here and in other Places of the Empire to ſpeak of the Affair of that General; ſo he ſhall be obliged on his Part never to make any mention of the ſame, either by Word of Mouth or Writing.

VIENNA, Sept. 20. It is not confirm'd that Col. Cornberg late Commandant of Orſova, has made his Eſcape as was reported; we hear, on the contrary, that he is kept under a strict Guard; and that the Officers who sign'd the Capitulation are likewise put under Arrest. It is added, that the Colonel alledges in his Justification, that it was the late Engineer General de Bauffe that prevail'd upon him to surrender, by assuring him the Fortifications of the Place could not withstand a general Assault. However that may be, the Garrison had Provisions for three Months, and Ammunition for a Year, and was 750 Men strong when it march'd out. It is said that Advice is just arrived from Constantinople of the Death of the Grand Signior on the 25th of last Month, and of great Tumults and Confusion in that Capital, which was divided into two Factions; the one for the eldest Son of the Defunct, as Heir apparent; and the other for one of his Brothers, as a Prince more worthy to reign.

They write from Genoa, that they have had a Report of Lord Theodore's Return to Corsica, with two Men of War laden with Provisions and Warlike Stores, but that this Report is since dissipated; that the Corsican Malecontents still persist in their Resolution to submit to the King of France's Orders, but are very unwilling to deliver up their Arms for fear of being afterwards abandoned to the Mercy of the Genoese, which they dread more than Death itself.

About ten Days ago a very old Man in Paris, who had 97,000 Livres in ready Money by him, wish'd to see 100,000 in his Possession before he died, and for that purpose prevailed on his Son to borrow 3000 Livres for him, which he had no sooner got, but he shut himself in his Closet, in order to put that Sum along with his own Money; but while he was telling over his Treasure in his Chest, the Lid fell upon his Head, and the next Day he was found dead.

This Day a General Council is summoned to meet at Kensington; when the Hon. John Verney will be sworn into the High Office of Master of the Rolls.

Octob. 4. By Letters from Vienna, dated Oct. 1, N. S. we have an Account, that they have receiv'd Advices, of the 24th past, from the Army at Semlin and from Belgrade, where every Thing is quiet, and not a Turk to be seen; Vipalanka indeed, in the Bannat, has surrendered; but Panchova, which lies over-against Belgrade, and had been falsly reported to have been burnt, is putting into some Posture of Defence, and for that Purpose M. Berenclau has been sent thither with 800 Men, consisting of Haidukes and Hussars; and at Belgrade itself, the Works are carrying on with great Diligence, whither, as is assured by Letters of the 24th, 50,000 Head of Sheep and Cattle have been carried by certain Inhabitants in that Neighbourhood. There has been a Report, that the Turks had attacked Ratscha, and had been repulsed, but this wants Confirmation. Neither is there any News from Sabatz, or the Neighbourhood of that Place.

Oct. [illegible]ey write from Moscow, that the [illegible]mbassador was expected there ev[illegible]t they have received Advice, tha[illegible]uli Kan (Schach Nadir) has take[illegible]vince from the Great Mogul.

Our [illegible]om Vienna of the 1st Instant, N. S. are, t[illegible]our Days before, that Court received a Courier from the Veldt Marshal Count Konigsegg, with Advice that the Grand Vizir was retired towards Nissa; which News is confirmed by the last Letters from Belgrade, containing that Adjutant Braitach, having been detached to spy out the Enemy, advanced as far as Crotzka, and at his Return reported that he did not meet with any.

Those Letters add, that the Infidels have likewise retired from the Frontiers of Transylvania, without undertaking any Thing against that Province; and that those who advanced towards Sabasch and the Saave, have likewise disappeared, except a few Detachments of between 3 and 4000 Horse, which shew themselves now and then, without attempting any Thing.

Letters from Madrid, assure us, that Admiral Haddock's Squadron is arrived at Gibraltar, and that the King of Spain has sent Orders to the Troops that were canton'd in the Neighbourhood of that Place, to draw off as soon as possible and take up Quarters of Refreshment in the neighbouring Provinces.

We have a Confirmation that Lord Theo- is landed in Corsica with 24 Pieces of Cannon, 9000 Muskets, and a great Quantity of Powder and Ball.

Letters from Petersburg of the 20th of Sept. N. S. say, that an Express is arrived there from the Veldt Marshal Count Munich, with Advice, that his Excellency, not being able to execute the intended Design upon Choczim, on account of the Plague which reigns in Moldavia, and in Poland, especially in the Neighbourhood of that Town and Kaminieck; he had resolved to march towards the Bog, in order to return to the Ukrain through the Steppes or Desarts: The Count adds, that he has sent back to Constantinople the Courier he received from the Marquess de Villeneuve. It is confirmed, that the Army, commanded by the Veldt Marshal Count Lacy, is marched out of the Crim.

A Letter from Leopol in Polish Russia, Dated Sept. 27, N. S.

We have received Advice, that the Russian Army commanded by the Veldt Marshal Munich, passed the Bog a Week ago, and was continuing its March back to the Ukrain: The Tartars follow the Russians and harrass them Night and Day. We have no certain News of the Success of Lieutenant General Stoffeln's Expedition, who is said to have march'd out of Oczakow with his Garrison, in order to surprise the Bialogorod. However, it is thought, that General has considered the Difficulty of that Enterprize, and is marched back to Oczakow. The Bashaws of Bender and Choczim have made publick Rejoicings in their respective Towns on Occasion of the Russian Army's

Return

Return to the Boriſthenes. We have juſt received Advice, that a large Body of Tartars, having attacked Count Munich's Rear Guard on the other Side of the Bog, were repulſed and put to Flight, with the Loſs of a great Number killed on the Spot. Our Letters from the Camp of Winnica confirm that a Body of Turkiſh Troops are on their March to Oczakow.

They write from Warſaw, that the King and Queen of Poland arrived there the 27th of laſt Month, N. S

Our Advices from Vienna ſay, that the Grand Vizier is actually advancing with 50,000 of the beſt Turkiſh Troops, and a Train of Artillery, to beſiege Belgrade: It is even ſaid, that this Prime Miniſter, who is extreamly fixed in his Reſolutions, has obliged all the Officers in his Army to take an Oath upon the Alcoran, that they will loſe their Lives in that Siege rather than fail of Succeſs. The little Town of Semendria on the Banks of the Danube, having no Fortification but a bare Wall, has been obliged to ſurrender by Capitulation, and its Garriſon, conſiſting of 80 Men, have been conducted to Belgrade.

The Baſhaw of Bolnia, who has 40,000 Men under his Command, has paſſed the Drina with half that Number, in order to join the Grand Vizier. We are ſtill aſſured, that the Infidels have blocked up Temeſwar. The Troops, which compoſe the Imperial Army, encamp along the Danube between Semlin and Peterwaradin. The Emperor's Men of War and Frigats cruiſe between thoſe two Places.

Extract of a Letter from Rome, dated September 20.

" Laſt Thurſday the French Embaſſador ſent one of his " Coaches to the Hoſpicium of the Armenians, in order to " bring to his Palace a Perſian lately arrived here, who is to " proceed to France in Quality of Envoy from the Sophi " Thamas Kouli Kan to the Moſt Chriſtian King: His Ex- " cellency is to preſent him to the Pope forthwith; and it " is ſaid that that Miniſter has two Letters from the Sophi " his Maſter; one to the Pope, in order to demand Miſſio- " naries, with Aſſurances that they ſhall be protected all " over that Prince's Dominions; and the other to the Con- " gregation of Propaganda-Fidei on the ſame Subject.

The Stocks roſe on the 27th of September, on a Report that the Spaniards had made ſome Conceſſions very advantageous to the Britiſh Trade.

From the Paris A la-Main, October 11.

Cardinal de Fleury, who is ſtill very weak, ſet out from Fountainebleau the 18th Inſt. for Iſſy.

We hear by Letters from Germany, that the Grand Vizir, having march'd up to Belgrade with 60,000 Men, attack'd the Lines of the Imperialiſts, and forced into them Sword in Hand; that the latter had above 8000 Men kill'd and wounded; that the reſt of them, conſiſting of upwards of 12,000, fled into Belgrade, whoſe Garriſon conſiſts at preſent of above 16,000 Men; that three General Officers of the Imperial Army were kill'd in that Action, that the Veldt Marſhal Count Koningſegg is mortally wounded; and that Prince Charles of Lorrain is in Belgrade. The Emperor's Army is diſpers'd, and the Grand Vizir has caus'd another Body of 16,000 Men, to advance in order to block up that Town, which he intends to take by Famine on Account of the great Number of Troops it it. We wait the Confirmation of this News.

The Poſt-Maſter of Belgrade has ſent a Letter hither, dated the 21ſt. Inſtant, where he ſays, that the Turkiſh Army was actually encamp'd about that Town in the Form of a half Moon, and that by the great Number of Standards they perceiv'd, they judg'd the Infidels amounted to between 70 and 80,000 Men.

They write from Berlin, that ſince his Pruſſian Majeſty's Journey to Lyn, a Marriage between the ſecond Prince of Pruſſia, and the Princeſs Amelia, ſecond Daughter of the King of Great-Britain, has begun afreſh to be talk'd of at that City. It's ſaid this Affair was reviv'd at the Viſit the King made to the Prince of Orange, who founded his Pruſſian Majeſty thereupon. The King's Anſwer to this was couch'd in ſuch Terms, as demonſtrated his Approbation of the Propoſition: Since which it has been reported, that a Miniſter in a publick Character will be ſent from London to Berlin to treat upon this Subject, and to execute another Commiſſion, as well in Relation to East-Frieſland, as to re-eſtabliſh a good Harmony and Underſtanding between the two Courts. This laſt ſeems now more immediately neceſſary that ever, ſince the Proteſtant Intereſt is in ſo much Danger, from the ſtrict Union of the Emperor with the King of France.

LONDON, October 6. There is a ſtrong Report in Town that Count Munich's Train of Artillery had fallen into the Hands of the Turks; that General being oblig'd to paſs through Deſerts, and over mountainous Places, and knowing the Difficulty of conveying Cannon, &c. through ſuch a Country, had caus'd it to be buried, which had been diſcover'd and taken by the Turks.

It is alſo reported, that Kouli Kan, Sophy of Perſia, had actually declar'd War againſt the Grand Signior, and that an Army of 250,000 Men, were on their March, in order to attack the Turks.

Yeſterday 300 Anchors of Baandy, with a large Quantity of Tea, ſeiz'd at Whitehaven by the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, were brought to his Majeſty's Warehouſe at the Cuſtom-Houſe.

They write from Vienna, that the Grand Duke of Tuſcany is under the greateſt Anxiety, and even overwhelm'd with Grief, at the ill Succeſs of the Emperor's Affairs. Its ſtill thought by ſome, that his Brother Prince Charles of Lorrain, was kill'd with the Sieurs Wurmbrand and Uhlefeld, in the Fort of Elizabeth, there having been no abſolute News of him ſince. It's not at all ſtrange, that the Imperialiſts have had ſo many Diſadvantages this Year in Hungary, it being certain, that their Army did not, at the moſt, amount to above 24000 Men, who were in a Condition to ſerve, notwithſtanding what was given out of their having a great Number of Troops in the Field laſt Campaign.

Letters from France adviſe, that the Ruſſians have been beaten both by Sea and Land. If this News ſhould prove true, it will be confirm'd from Poland.

NEWPORT, Rhode-Iſland, Decemb. 8.

On the 24th of November laſt, Ann Braggs of Portſmouth, Rhode-Iſland, a poor drinking Woman, going from a Neighbour's Houſe, and returning home in the Night, loſt her Way, and was found next Morning froze to Death, ſuppoſed to be in Liquor: She was afterwards decently Interr'd.

BOSTON, Decemb. 11.

We hear from Barnſtable, that a few Weeks ago, a Chimney of Mr. Solomon Otis taking Fire, one of his Children, a Daughter about Twelve Years of Age, being ſurpriz'd, run haſtily to call her Father, but in her way fell down and hurt herſelf to that Degree, that ſhe died in a few Minutes.

We are inform'd that ſometime the laſt Month in eight Days Mr. John Wilſon of Andover, buried eight Children, who all dy'd of the Throat Diſtemper, four of whom were buried in two Days and in two Graves, the eldeſt of the Children was 16 or 18 Years of Age.

Extract of a private Letter from Liſbon, Sept. 19. N. S.

" We learn from Alicant, that the Britiſh Merchants " there had ſent off to Mahone, all their Books and Effects; " which gives great Cauſe of Suſpicion that there will be a " Rupture in a little Time with Spain, notwithſtanding their " peaceable Pretenſions, which are look'd upon to be a meer " Farce.
